

Hear it tomorrow... the hit of the Parade

the 1960 Bush ballad

BUSH BALLAD

Sing Bush, Bush, toorel-i-addy,
 Bush, Bush, toorel-i-ay,
 Bush, Bush, toorel-i-addy,
 Get Bush television today!

Get the set with the crystal-clear picture
 The set that's so handsome to see:
 Get the set with the push-button tuning,
 Get Bush nineteen-sixty TV!

CHORUS: Sing Bush, Bush, etc.

Get the set that'll get every programme,
 RE., UTV, BBC,
 Get the set that's so slender and shapely,
 Get Bush nineteen-sixty TV!

CHORUS: Sing Bush, Bush, etc.

TIME TO PREPARE DEFENCE

The hearing of a charge of driving while drunk and driving in a manner dangerous to the public against Gerald Verhoeven, Trimleston Ave., Booterstown, was adjourned till April 6 by Justice O'Hagan at Shankill to-day.

Mr. B. Kirby (defending), asking for an adjournment, told the Justice he had only been consulted that morning. His client had only got notice of intention to prosecute and was expecting to receive summonses.

The Justice said that in view of the fact that the charges were serious he felt he must give defendant every opportunity to prepare his defence.

Come and hear the Viscounts' calypso version of the new Bush Ballad in tomorrow's Dublin Parade!

QUALITY TELEVISION
 JANUS

Dublin rescue

Mr. Michael Byrne (31), of Kildare Rd., was "under observation" in the Meath Hospital to-day after he had been rescued from the River Poddle at Harold's Cross.

SEE

BRUTONS
 classified furniture columns
 BRUTONS
 3 Henry Street, Dublin